Get get away
this sick sad silhouette is here to stay and i sit back and watch this all from outer space we know you've got nothing to show and even though you're nothing but a spec on earth, you are the biggest wreck

hats off
your game of ruining lives is going well and we would like to thank you for the drinks hooked on, its a long shot to make it out alive and i'm down and out running on empty

as you crash and burn

whats this?
what's next?
i see you're headed for the best in not the least, feeling sorry for yourself and we both know you've got nothing to show and even all the hotel rooms on the east coast still couldn't save you from yourself

this game is now 27 to 1
and we would like to thank you for the drinks hooked on, its a long shot we'll make it out alive i'm beginning to find out that there's more to this... you've got a hold you've really got a hold on me and i can barely breathe
