He's gone,
How can that be?
He was just here,
It doesn't make sense to me

Then I see your smiling
And I understand,
Your living proof
That his life had a plan

Sometimes, it's hard
Sometimes, it's the middle of the night
Sometimes, everything's wrong
Sometimes, everything is right

I see a piece of heaven when I look at you
It shines so bright after all you've been through
It doesn't seem fair,
Things like this never do
I see a piece of heaven when I look at you

People try but only Jesus could know,
The pain in your heart that may never go
Tough questions may never leave your mind,
Easy answers are nowhere to find

Sometimes, it's hard
Sometimes, it's the middle of the night
Sometimes, everything's wrong
Sometimes, everything is right

I see a piece of heaven when I look at you,
It shines so bright after all you've been through,
It doesn't seem fair,
Things like this never do,
I see a piece of heaven when I look at you
When I look at you.
