(Jerry Crutchfield)

Sweetheart, when you read this letter
With all my heart I hope you understand
For no one could have ever loved me better
But the truth is, I belong to another man
Oh I tried many times to tell you
I didn't want to let you go
Now I pray your heart will just see to forgive
But not forget me.

A sweeter love, from God above, I'll never know.

A sweeter love I'll never know
Oh how it hurts, to let you go
Another time, another place
Who knows, who knows
Just remember, I'll always love you
Be always thinking of you
A sweeter love I'll never know...
