(Randy Cullen - Alan Rush)

Willed our love to last forever
We both would always be together
The dream was beautiful, the scheme was grand
Born like the castles built of sand.

You'd wake me with a kiss so gently
I'd thank the Lord for the man he'd sent me
We were so happy then, our life was planned
Born like the castles built of sand.

Sandcastles are only dreams
But our love is real
And there ain't no use in talking
If you can't feel what I feel.
I love you!

Before we lose our dreams completely
Just hold me close and say you need me
We'll both try harder this time and our love will stand
Not like the castles built of sand.

We'll both try harder this time
And our love will stand
Not like the castles built of sand...
