(G.Galbraith - R.Mareno)

Fantasy that you and me
To think that you could ever really care
Is just a dream, only a dream, fantasy
Fantasy, that's you and me
Reality is more than I can bear.

And so I dream my foolish dreams, fantasy
I spend my nights imagining how it could be
To dim the lights and hold you close to me
Fantasy so cruel to me.

Your love is something I can never share
And so I dream my foolish dream, fantasy
Fantasy, fantasy, fantasy, fantasy...
