(Mogol - C. Donida - J. Fishman)

Love is like candy on a shelf
You want a taste then help yourself
The sweetest things are there for you
Help yourself take a few
A that's what I want you to do
We're always told repeatedly
The very best in life is free
And if you want to prove it's true
A baby I'm a telling you
A this is what a you should do
Just help yourself to my lips to my arms
Say the word and they are yours
Just help yourself to a love in my heart
Your smile has opened up a door
You know the greatest wealth that exist in the world
Could never buy what I can give
So help yourself to my lips to my arms
And then let's really start to live
My heart has a love enough for two
Money and love on me and you
I'm rich with love a millionaire
I've so much you know it's unfair
So why don't you take a share
And just help yourself to my lips to my arms
You better say the word and they'll be yours yeah
Help yourself to a love in my heart
You know your smile opened up my door
I said the greatest wealth that exist in the world
You know it could never buy what I can give
So you just help yourself to a my lips a to my arms
And then we'll really really start to live
You better help yourself to my lips a to my arms
Say the word and I'm your's
Well help yourself to the love in this old heart
You know you finally opened opened up a door
I say the greatest wealth
The greatest wealth that exist in the world
Could never buy what I can give
