(Jackie DeShannon)

Oh moon and stars above
Please come down
And let me give you to the one I love
Oh, wind and rain so free
If I could give you to him
He's sure to remember me.

Oh birds that fly so high
Come down and sing your sweetest song
To my love and I.

Oh rainbow shine over the sea
If I could give you to him
He's sure to remember me.

I know that he doesn't recall
One time remains
But if we meet again
I don't want him to forget.

Oh rainbow shining over the sea
If I could give you to him
He's sure to remember me
Oh, remember me, oh, remember me.

He's sure to remember me...
