(Johnny Cash - Ray Cash Jr)

At my door the leaves are falling
And soon the rain will come
Sweethearts walk by together
And I still miss someone.

I can still hear his voice say I love you
And I see I see his face everywhere
I miss those arms that held me
When all the love was there.

I wonder, I wonder if he's sorry
For leaving what we'd begun
Oh, there's someone, there's someone for me
somewhere
But I still miss someone.

--- Instrumental ---

Yes, there's someone there must be someone for me
somewhere
But I still miss someone...
