Why do I cry why do I sigh when I know oh when I know deep down inside
What you told me was just another lie Everyday I get the blues I get those bad kind of blues I just can't lose
What you told me was just another lie
I should know better by now I shouldn't trust you like I do But when you wrote those great big lies you're just like an angel out of the blues So why do I cry why do I sigh when I know when I know
deep down inside
What you told me was just another lie [sax]
I should know better by now...
