(B. Wyrick - T. Woodford)

I can only stand so much
And I can't stand being by myself
Is it asking for too much to want
Someone to call my own
I got so much to give
But no one to give it to, oh, oh, oh
Why is love so hard to find
Isn't there someone else who's lonely too?

Has anybody out there got some left over love
A little your willing to share
Has anybody out there got some left over love
I need a little bit of tenderness
Now and then a warm caress
Has anybody got a little bit of love to spare?

I need sometimes just a touch
After all I'm only human
That's easy enough
If it's all your looking for
But, I finely reached the point
That love means so much more
So if there's someone like me listening
I'm just what your looking for.

Has anybody out there got some left over love
A little your willing to share
Has anybody out there got some left over love
I need a little bit of tenderness
Now and then a warm caress
Has anybody got a little bit of love to spare?

Has anybody out there got some left over love
A little your willing to share
Has anybody out there got some left over love
I need a little bit of tenderness
Now and then a warm caress
Has anybody got a little bit of love to spare?...
