Well love is the golden key,
To happiness, the key to happiness, the key to happiness
Love is the golden key to happiness
Everybody's looking for the key

The girl in the office and the man on the street
The boy in school and the cop on the beat
They all know as long as there's a moon above
They'll be happy till they find the love

Because Love is the golden key,
To happiness, the key to happiness, the key to
Love is the golden key to happiness
Everybody's looking for the key

The barber the baker and the sailor in blue
The hearts walking down on the avenue
They all know as long as there's a moon above
They'll be happy until they find the love

Because love is the golden key,
To happiness, the key to happiness, the key to
Love is the golden key to happiness
Everybody's looking for the key

If your unhappy and feeling kinda blue
Here's some advice I'll like pass on to you
If your hearts are full of love for all see Before very long my find the key

Because love is the golden key,
To happiness, the key to happiness, the key to
Love is the golden key to happiness
Everybody's looking for the key
Everybody's looking for the key
Everybody's looking for the key
