So cute when you get so mad
But how you act never felt so bad
Lift up just in time for the letdown
Smile crash you know it's the best sound

And now you think you're relevant
And you're revealing why
Truth is relative
Drink that dirty lie
Always with problems we started
Admit you're just what I wanted
What I wanted
What I wanted
All, all I wanted
All, all I wanted

Hard not to curse when you got those curves
If we're playing games can I go first
Say you've been hurt, but give it so much worse
You act innocent, you're so well versed

Don't speak I know you too well
Girls like you love to kiss and tell
Eyes roll in time with the breakdown
Smiles fade, we just missed the best sound

And now you think you're relevant
As you pick your side
It's all relative
What a dirty lie
All this with problems we started
Admit you're just what I wanted
Just what I wanted
You're just what I wanted
You're just what I wanted
Just what I wanted

Hard not to curse when you got those curves
If we're playing games can I go first
Say you've been hurt, but give it so much worse
You act innocent, you're so well versed
Hard not to curse when you got those curves

If we're playing games can I go first

Hard not to curse when you got those curves

If we're playing games can I go first

Say you've been hurt, but give it so much worse

You act innocent, you're so well versed

Hard not to curse when you got those curves

If we're playing games can I go first

Say you've been hurt, but give it so much worse

You act innocent, you're so well verse
