I was wrong
For the first time in a century
And no one believed me
But it hurt like a bitch
You said 'Bye'
In a way that almost fit me
And how you're leaving
God! it's making me sick
She said "You're almost worth dying for"

And who's gonna kiss me goodnight? (if you go)
And who's gonna stay to help me turn out the lights?
I was scared when you got scared,
But we can be alright, just don't leave tonight.
Oh don't leave tonight.

And I was lost
For the first time in a century,
And how you found me
It was making me sick.
And we left off
On a roller-coaster ride to
Some place dark blue
And I was scared like a bitch
She said "You're almost worth dying for"
And who's gonna kiss me goodnight? (if you go)
And who's gonna stay and help me turn out the lights?
I was scared when you got scared,
But we can be alright, just don't leave tonight.
Oh don't leave tonight.

And I'm sorry, I'm sorry, GO!!!

But who's gonna kiss me goodnight? (if you go)
And who's gonna stay and help me turn out the light?
Cuz I got scared when you got scared,
But we can be alright, just don't leave tonight.

And who's gonna kiss me goodnight? (oh, don't leave tonight)
And who's gonna stay and help me turn out the light?

Cuz I got scared when you got scared,
But we can be alright, just don't leave tonight.
Oh don't leave tonight
