Four in the morning and I'm sober walking through the rain,
It doesn't matter where I'm going,
Everywhere's the same cold dark room I've put myself into.
You were a window to a world that I could never know,
And asked for every piece of me so I let you go way too soon..
Now back to my cold dark room.

If I could take it all back,
I could make it all right,
You could be the best part of my life.
If I could tell you all night that I wanna be the man I'm supposed to be.

I won't lie,
I've waited a million hours just to say that I will die if you leave me,
And you are the way my heart beats,
And you are the words my tongue speaks,
And I will die if you leave me.

I know you heard a thousand words that took your breath away,
A million melodies that never got the notes to say what they mean,
I promised you everything.

If I could take it all back,
I could make it all right,
You could be the best part of my life.
If I could tell you all night that I wanna be the man I'm supposed to be.

I won't lie,
I've waited a million hours just to say that I will die if you leave me,
And you are the way my heart beats,
And you are the words my tongue speaks,
And I will die if you leave me.

This is me when my world stops turning,
Heart stops while I notice everything is falling apart.
This is me when my lungs start burning to say what I mean,
When I know that I could, but I won't.
Tell me things that will break the silence,
Where I can hear every heartbeat in this place.
I wanna see the hope,
I wanna feel the love,
I wanna hear what you say when I say:

If I could take it all back,
I could make it all right,
You could be the best part of my life.
If I could tell you all night that I wanna be the man I'm supposed to be.

I won't lie,
I've waited a million hours just to say that I will die if you leave me,
And you are the way my heart beats,
And you are the words my tongue speaks,
And I will die if you leave me.
