Hey, I wanna learn how to dance
Like all the boys in all the videos Hey, I've lived my life in a trance
That made everyone around me loose control Cause the nights and the lights seem to be giving everybody a bad taste
And they say that you know when it's right cause you cry when we fight, but its okay

Welcome to life
Here's what it's like Here's what it's always been
A shot in the dark
Straight through the heart
While you're in the light with them
and welcome to hurt, welcome to fear
It's better now that everybody's here
Yeah welcome to life

She says hey,
I wanna leave in the dark and we'll so far nobody has to know and I know it ends, I wanna know where it starts Cause these lights and miles kill pains that we all know
But if we never start running we don't have to stop running away, love
And I guess we were never really leaving if we never really planned to stay, oh

Welcome to life
Here's what it's like
Here's what it's always been
A shot in the dark
Straight through the heart
While you're in the light with them
and welcome to hurt, welcome to fear
It's better now that everybody's here
Yeah welcome to life
(Oh oh oh ohx3) Oh

And welcome to life
Here's what it's like
Here's what it's always been
A shot in the dark
Straight through the heart
While you're in the light with them
and welcome to hurt, welcome to fear
It's better now that everybody's here
Oh yeah welcome to life
