I'm building my own cell tonight
And I will never make a key
It's just me in the dark
Alone here with my heart
Won't you come and set me free
And you and I we have a history
And not much here outweighs the pain
And every mile got in the way
Although the fear was self contained
But say we both assume the blame
'Cause what if my stars fell from the sky
And what if they landed in your eyes?
Would it be alright?
When all of my time has gone away
I want to say I've left more than days
But what's on my mind tonight
Is what if you don't?
Yeah, What if you don't?
There was a time I had a symphony
And it played love to me for days
Then all at once I heard the strings
Out of tune and out of key
It seems there's no song here for me
Oh not for me
And what if my stars fell from the sky
And what if they landed in your eyes?
Well would it be alright?
When all of my time has gone away
I want to say I've left more than days
But what's on my mind tonight
Is what if you don't?
Yeah What if you don't?
'Cause I see the night
It's coming for me
To take you away
It's here as a thief and I know that I'm scared from down on my knees
I'm asking relief from what if you don't?
Yeah what if you don't?
