First Love

By Goapele

Album: Change It All

As summer was ending, you were walking in
It seemed my life was falling
But in this season we were friends
Six days into spring, is where our story begins
You didn't rush a thing,
But you knew you would win

I never thought you'd be the only one
I dreamt of fairytales, that's how we begun
But I was waiting for some magical moment,
That would prove to me, forever would be fine
Meanwhile my first love was standing first in line...

One of the first times I didn't feel alone,
Is when I was in your arms, you always made me feel at home
We watched the sunrise, cause the night had slipped away
And from then until now, we've been through some different phases
But you love the winter, love the challenge,
Always managed to think that we would make it

I never thought you'd be the only one
I dreamt of fairytales, that's how we begun
But I was waiting for some magical moment,
That would prove to me, forever would be fine
Meanwhile my first love was standing first in line...

So let me get used to things, 'cuz gradual's my name
I don't dive into the cold, I get in slow, but every day
I'm making peace with loving you, peace with being me
Any pieces of us - I claim them all today

I never thought you'd be the only one
I dreamt of fairytales, that's how we begun
But I was waiting for some magical moment,
That would prove to me, forever would be fine

Meanwhile my first love was standing first in line...

Was standing first in line...
