Make sense of the world when it's upside down
Spinning so fast, but for some it just ends
Keep moving on quiet as kept
It hasn't been long, hasn't sunken in yet

Then I fall into pieces
I'm here and you've left
Fall into pieces
I'll never see you again
Separate like a puzzle floating in space
So lost in this galaxy of life
So lost

There's so many things we haven't said
There's so many places never went
Wish you could visit every now and then
Oh I keep pretending like I understand
Was it something that I could prevent?
Oh I miss you like a piece is gone
So lost

Cause I fall into pieces
Oh I fall into pieces
Never seeing you again
I separate like a puzzle and I'm floating in space
So lost in this galaxy of life

So I rise and fall like the tide
And I'm so full and empty inside
All those memories linger in my mind
Wish you were here with me

I said I fall into pieces
Oh I fall into pieces
I'll never see you again
I separate like a puzzle and I'm floating in space
So lost in this galaxy of life
