I've been watching you, girl, from afar
I've been asking around who you are
You don't know it now but that's OK
I know that you'll be with me one day

She doesn't love me
She doesn't care
She doesn't even know I'm there
But that's not gonna stop me
I'm not gonna cry
'Cause someday I'm gonna be her guy

If you ever want to talk I'm here
I will listen to you I'm all ears
If there's anything that I can do
Anything at all I'll do for you

She doesn't notice
I'm not missed
She acts as if I don't exist
But I'm not discouraged
I'm telling you why
Someday I'm gonna be her guy
Someday I'm gonna be her guy

She doesn't notice when I'm not around
I might as well be underground
But that's all gonna change
I won't be so shy
'Cause someday I'm gonna be her guy

But I'm not discouraged
I'm telling you why
Someday I'm gonna be her guy
