All the crucified bleed from ribs False words of the church
Research of evolving change Tortured by the hand of fire
Condemned to demise in lust This forgotten trial of the witch holocaust
The harvest moon feeds swarm Bringing crops to fertilize the new breed
The new plague, embrace swarm Cataclysm of the new found population control
Sacrifice the mosquito egg Feverish prophecy born from the waters of storm
Temples raised from the skulls of dead victims in battle for god
All altars praised as the lamb changes form for prayer
Burning fires led by trials of the unconformed Exiled bodies of the plagues burned for the comfort of faith Mythic beyond Raging waters of revenge
Overbearing scroll Mistakes of your God Your Idol, Your soul
Worship new found prophet Sickness waiting for the weak
Lost pages of beliefs Denying bodies of the deaed Aggression your ruler
Perish as slave to this hostile world Leper in colony of the born again
This virgins bleeding deception inverted garde n of the first race
Suffocation in starvation Sitting on the throne of the unforgiven
Knees sore from crawling To make peace for insult of the grave
Mercy for the dying May all be damned to follow this same fate
No life is worth supreme sacrifice This funeral of the magnificent Crushed with tyhe sympathy for your dead Exiled to hear the winds of grief...Alone
Restructured in a shallow place Perception now bleeds with these same writings of disgrace
Sacrifice the kill to the Dark Lord Die for us, Leaving your soul to be crushed
Taking form in hallucination Entering the broken seal of final creation
Brushing the palms upon fields of gold grain This belief does not exist in the world that lives by no name
