Solitude of this elevation brought into the levels of hell
Corpse of these great demons comes earth and sky
Lecherous in these accounts of wisdom
Bearing weight of masters shall bear curse
Endurance in perdition without sufferance
Contradiction in swallowed ruin of the defying
These reflections observed in fault of past with sin
Inscribed in the intersection of these inferior deities Renounce the arcane lore of this disregard
Closing these seals in reverence to the storm god
Subliminal sorcery to emanate this force of chaos
Observe the destruction of the superstitious
Contest to the snakes of Algol
Abhor the stone filled sight
Eclipsing evil spirit of smokeless fire
Implosive to the soul collide in vain
Fiend of the esoteric to immerse in vortex
Vessels of transmutation for the ancient ones
Destructive forces within genesis of evil
Hurling into polar constrain unified in this immune anguish
This frozen atrophied sun has it's namesake on this oblivion
Diabolic in eternity
Abominate this prophecy
Dishonor the snakes with eyes of a marble gaze
Kept alive in the embrace of fear beneath this silence
Elements in this reform of malevolent indifference Conspiracy of eternal compassion crushed by misguided souls
Delusion in form lies the vile truth in secrecy of hell
Perversions of mercy to bare mark of the necrophile
Anthem in this desecration for the infection in grace Pandemonium will reach neglect of the forgiveness of man's soul
Intercession, these cursed hands will have no cause for god
Hallowed effigy, everlasting in truth of the slayer of Christ's whore
