i want to know the place i like to see your face when i wake up where you come from i offer me just for yourself wrapped up for you and no one else could be appreciative and no one else
when you walk you take you take your time when i'm at your side if you feel take the tiniest steps be as appreciative of your charm you're left behind and we'll be like a tree i'll slow down to your pace and we'll grow on and if the world should end with fires and bombs i'd like to be there holding hands and no one else could steal a piece with you i'll view the end of the lands like you could steal a piece that big of my heart

i want to be with you
and we will be together and we will life forever
