"Self Appointed Leader"

Visit "Self Appointed Leader" on MotoLyrics.com

did you think that i was blind?
did you think i couldn't see?
did you think i'd just dismiss your betrayal so easily?
sick and tired of your negativity.
sick and tired of your contradictions.
you should understand in order to make change more than
just words and ideologies are needed, you've gotta be down to earth, so get it through your head.

nobody appointed you any kind of leader. and to think i once trusted you,
i used to call you friend.
i can forgive but i can't forget,
i won't be hurt by you again.
you've got it in your mind that you've been appointed as some kind of leader.
