"Assed Out"

Chosen few to walk in peace
Standing at the gate
Crossing all the fields of dreams
You must not hesitate
Life has dealt the hand from hell
There is no escape
Testing all the cards of chance
To unseal your fate
Assed out is what they see
One wrong move
Assed out they will be
Step by step they move
Searching viciously
Not knowing the price of their insanity
Assed out, is what they say
Assed out, is what they'll be Come into my realm of pain
Filled with deceit and lies
If you cross my path again
You will meet your demise
Time has come to stand and do what now must be done
If you choose to fight no more
You will now have won
Assed out is what they see
One wrong move
Assed out they will be
Step by step they move
Searching viciously
Not knowing the price of their insanity
Assed Out
