Darkness surrounding me
I'm waiting here till you free me

Lifting the tombstone
And what do you see
Lifting the tombstone
A skeleton waiting to be free

Don't wait too long
The worms, they're raging on

Lifting the tombstone
And what do you see
Lifting the tombstone
A skeleton waiting to be free

Imprisoned in this box with blackness
Feels like you've forgotten me

Battles in the north
Bats in the sky
South of Heaven
Is where it all went wrong

Digging a hole
In the black hole sun
Draining the chalice of blood
With the body of Christ

Moving the tombstone
Moving the tombstone
Moving the tombstone
Moving the tombstone

Do you hear the sound
Of the wind in the trees?
Do you hear the grass growing
My body decomposing?

It's cold, it's so cold
It's cold, six feet under

Do you hear the sound
Of the wind in the trees?
Do you hear the grass growing
My body decomposing?

Darkness surrounding me
I'm waiting here till you set me free

Lifting the tombstone
And what do you see?
Lifting the tombstone
A skeleton waiting to be free

Don't wait too long
The worms, they're raging on

Lifting the tombstone
And what do you see?
Lifting the tombstone

Battles in the north
South of Heaven

Digging a hole
With the body of Christ

Moving the tombstone
Moving the tombstone
Moving the tombstone
Moving the tombstone

Lifting the tombstone
And what do you see?
Tombstone
