Meaningless morals
Of a class unlike you
The struggle to embrace words
Which ring untrue
Weather the storm, go your own way
Weather the storm, go your own way
For freedom
Against the lies told to you
Events yet to come
Sanitized anger of parallel journeys driven
To chaotic change
Unjustly accused
Of constant abuse at the hands of others
Bent on control
Returning home through the unseen eyes of a child
Not knowing right from wrong
Regurgitation of old becoming new
Corrupting the bowels of society
Weather the storm, go your own way
Weather the storm, go your own way
Values change for domination
Lower class bent on redemption
