(4:03)

I'm breathing the air the air i always breathe i don't have a lot
but i want someone to share it with me i really only want a few things they've all been taken away what does the next life bring i just want to feel o.k. i'm searching forever for someone or something ia want to be high and i want someone to love me i spent 23 years now trying to get by other people make it day to day i still wonder why i only really had a few things they've all turned to tears one tried to kill me
the other kept me
i'm still here
