

God Lives Underwater "23"

Visit "23" on MotoLyrics.com

I'm breathing the air
The air I always breathe
I don't have a lot
I want someone to share it with me

(chorus)
I really only want a few things
They've all been taken away
What does the next life bring
I just want to feel O.K.

I'm searching forever
For someone or something
I want to be high
And I want someone to love me

(chorus)

I've spent 23 years now
Trying to get by
Other people make it day to day
I still wonder why

(chorus)

I really only had a few things
They've all turned to tears
One tried to kill me
The other kept me here

I'm still here
