I've been trying my hardest but it's not good enough
Now I'm back where I started when life was tough on me

There's only so much you can do when it's started
(started)
Pull away pull away just pull away
You can try to no avail to discard it (card it)
Go away go away just go away
Just go away

Solved all of my problems for everyone but me
How is that a solution or recovery

There's only so much you can do when it's started
(started)
Pull away pull away just pull away
You can try to no avail to discard it (card it)
Go away go away just go away
Go away

I've done it again
Let down my closest friend at least you used to be
Until I pushed you away
You'll never understand and I'll never understand
How I could do these things
When I miss you more than anything
I stopped my ill behavior
And I'm up off the floor
It didn't stop the pain
It cleared the way for more, much more

There's only so much you can do when it's started
(started)
Pull away pull away just pull away
You can try to no avail to discard it (card it)
Go away go away just go away
Go away

I've done it again
Let down my closest friend at least you used to be
Until I pushed you all away from me

You'll never understand I don't understand
How I could do these things
When I miss you more than anything
I've done it again
Let down my closest friend at least you used to be
Until I pushed you far away from me
You'll never understand cause I'll never understand
How I could do these things
When I miss you more than anything
