Some say it's nothing to all
Some say it's nothing to, to the fall
It's so obscene
Turn off my life-support machine

Sometimes the weight's on me
Most people never see
You think that everything's a miracle
I don't

There's nothing left but sadness
And now to, back to this
Everybody wants me to be happy
Don't they know what it takes me make?

Sometimes the weight's on me
Most people never see
You think that everything's a miracle
I don't

Sometimes the weight's on me
Most people never see
You think that everything's a miracle
I don't

Sometimes the weight's on me
Most people never see
You think that everything's a miracle
I don't
