I was a child once
The fear of the world in my eyes Far from the safety of the other side I colored by numbers learned how to tie my own shoes Like all the others
I was just Afraid I'd make it thru

(chorus)
Oh mother look how your boy turned out 300 miles from that small town you never stopped believing oh daddy
it hurt to watch you walkin' out but understand it made me stronger now and so satisfied and so full of pride
thank you
here from
from the other side

oh oh oh oh
oh oh oh oh

I'll always remember the kids that I mean they've been 11 yrs old and I could could not fit in but I made it through high school and college according to plan the pressure was never greater to become a man would I become a man?

(chorus)

mother look how your boy turned out..
daddy it hurt to watch u walkin' out hear the piano do the cryin' out for all the preachers and the teachers now for all the ones who never let me down so satisfied

so full of pride standing here on
on the other side
thank you here from

here on the other side taking my time
there's nothing to fear there's nothing to worry about
on the other side

I remember when I thought I'd never find..
The other side
