When we first met, I played it so cool
I played it so cool like I was old skool
I didn't act jealous and I didn't get mad
But the tables have turned It's gotten really really bad
She had you first But I had you second
But when you two were dating I wasn't invested
I didn't get it how you've been affected
By the way she treated you some day she's gonna get it.

At first when you broke up I understood her calls
She wasn't over you, she cryed and she bold
I bite my finger nails, grining not to smerck
Knowing that I stole away form that jerk
Haaaaa plus she a erb and a sucker
Me, I'm a cool muthafucker and much better look
And you must have liked her personality or something

Have I told you
I hate your Ex-girlfrind
I think you should know
I hate your Ex-girlfriend
Let me just say
I hate your Ex-girlfriend
I hate her, I hate her

Have I told you
I hate your Ex-girlfrind
I think you should know
I hate your Ex-girlfriend
Let me just say
I hate your Ex-girlfriend
I hate her, I hate her

At first I was leanient I really dintn't care
But enough is enough where the fuck is a beer
I need to drink away all of my enger so I don't know myself
"Who are you"?
I'm a stranger
And it woudn't be as bad if I heart her

Or for getting in trouble for drinking committing murder
Hhhhhhh maybe was inspite
Except she an amazon six foot dyke
Pull up your dukes, come on lets go
But she's a world champion boxer you know
(Shit)
I guess that's a bad idea she could woop my ass
If she tried to swing, I'll just run really fast
She's a little over weight if you know what I mean
I'll call all my friends and put together a team
Well all go and get her, that will be the key
Except all my friends think that I'm crazy
(Koo koo)

Have I told you
Let me just say

Have I told you
Let me just say

(Look I'm sorry ok, I just don't know why you keep ignoring my call, I know your going out with that new smoot glayden, she's not cool, she's a rapper, I mean she's she's bold)
