Dear boo i'm trying write a letter to you and express how I fell and get it off my chest I figured if I wrote it if that be the best so I don't forget anything cause every is bottled up inside and days slip bye how time files since you come in my life all the moments that we spend I never want them to end I try top hold on to them by through stroke of my pen cause I fell you didn't know how deep i really feel you feel that my priority is a record deal and maybe at first that was all I cared about but in the last year my feelings has turned around and now I know that love is most important money and awards could never bore it a life with you a life with out my soul mate i promise that is a mistake I never make
I swear because I love you so much

Inside your eyes I see all the love that I been waiting for my life and I hope that you know my love will just grow baby I will love you for the rest of my life

I used to think I needed money to have a good time eating fancy dinners and expensive wines but the best times me and you have had when we are flat broke hanging out in the pad cooking meals out of pennies laughing in the kitchen I fell your spirit every day is a new lesson we dream together bout what our future holds we really don't even care if we broke we don't have much we have each other but for that i be loyal forever you stuck by my side through my worse times and i promise someday soon you be mine forever cause i ready to make that step walk down the aisle cause this is it I love you

Inside your eyes I see all the love that I been waiting for my life and I hope that you know my love will just grow baby I will love you for the rest of my life

when we fall apart you know that your always in my heart you know I love you that won't change and now and always

Inside your eyes I see all the love that I been waiting for

baby I will love you for the rest of my life

Inside your eyes I see all the love that I been waiting for
