OOOoo hoO hOoo

Uhhh

I know its cliché to say everyday be positive,
Life's filled with obstacles and broken promises,

When the sun don't shine your battling time,
On the search to find answers that you never find,
Sometimes... you feel like giving up,
Throw your hands to the sky cos you're so fed up,

Sometimes... you truly lose your hope
Trying to find an escape so you drink and smoke
Then the next day comes and it doesn't get better
Our generations lost, n we needa go get her so many of us got folks that don't get us it's not the same as it was, their mentality's stuck in their old ways, but it's not the same
In the past 20 years things have really changed, We've lost our sense of hope; n lost our sense of pride

I wanna change the way I think, at least I'm going to try.

Stand up for what you believe in, don't be afraid [Don't you be afraid]

It aint easy, to have hope when you're always broke But you know you've gotta keep, keeping on just the same
My baby...

It's a hope a sense of air the breeze around the world,
Trina t latch on to somethin' like riches and pearls,
Tryin' to find a sense of purpose in material things,
Distracted from yourself when your cell phone rings,
Hey
I understand how it feels, how life can be so hard to deal with,
Hey,
I've been down that road, searching for direction
with no path to follow,
You can't just go to college and get a degree,

FoÃ,Ã' sure itÃ,Ã'd make enough to support your family
WeÃ,Ã're an angry generation littered by the situation
Weapons too accessible to take out of frustration
With violence involved, guns resolve Minor disputes in schools bathroom stalls IÃ,Ã'm not sure how to process all the thoughts I have
I know times are tough but itÃ,Ã's not all bad Come on

Stand up for what you believe in [YouÃ,Ã've gotta believe], donÃ,Ã't be afraid [DonÃ,Ã't you be afraid]
It aint easy, to have hope when youÃ,Ã're always broke
But you know youÃ,Ã've gotta keep, keeping on just the
same
My baby...

ItÃ,Ã's up to us yaÃ,Ã'll
Our generation is way too complacent;
We have a war going on,
And so many of us are not free
Its time for us to make a stand
And come together
N donÃ,Ã't just talk revolution, act revolution, Stand up, come on.

Stand up for what you believe in, donÃ,Ã't be afraid
[DonÃ,Ã't you be afraid]
It aint easy
[It might not be easy baby],
To have hope when youÃ,Ã're always broke [But you gotta have some hope]
But you know youÃ,Ã've gotta keep, keeping on just the
same
My baby...

Stand up for what you believe in, donÃ,Ã't be afraid
[DonÃ,Ã't you be afraid]
It aint easy, to have hope when youÃ,Ã're always broke
But you know youÃ,Ã've gotta keep, keeping on just the
My baby...

Stand up for something, no matter what it is,
What youÃ,Ã're unhappy with Change your path,
Change your life,
Yeah,
We deserve equality, come on.
