Where's my money baby you've got me losing pounds

I'm gonna have to control your purse strings

I need some money now

And I can't take this situation

You've got me messed up inside

No I can't take this situation

You got me losing my mind

You've got me messed up inside

You got my heart turned around

I see you looking pretty in your fancy clothes

I need some loving now

And I can't take this situation

You've got me messed up inside

No I can't take this situation

I'm slowly losing my mind

Talk to me now

Right now

Listen to me

I'm slowly losing my mind over this financial situation

I need some change I need somewhere to go now

I need something to happen sometimes

And I can't take this situation

You've got me messed up inside

No I can't take this situation

I'm slowly losing my mind

Let's talk things over
