She's just got out of bed
She hasn't had her breakfast yet
She phoned in sick today
She needs a mental holiday

She's being pushed around
Her world is upside down
Know she's going down
Waiting for a chance to succeed

She said love's dead
She said love's dead

She found out where she went wrong
And now she knows she's hanging on
She may waste her time today
But they can't take her dreams away

She's being pushed around
Her world is upside down
Know she's going down
Waiting for a chance to succeed

She said love's dead
She said love's dead
She said love's dead
She said love's dead
She said love's dead
She said love's dead
