This is war

I won't fight for you no more

And I won't wear your uniform

You tied me down with a ball and chain

And all your words they sound the same

But I won't take this anymore

I'm not the one you're looking for

No I don't need this anymore

I don't need you

All hope is lost when love is gone

I've worked my fingers to the bone

I feel your stick across my back

I'm gone from here no turning back

But I won't take this anymore

I'm not the one you're looking for

No I don't need this anymore

I don't need you

T.V. man says this is war

But I won't fight for you no more

Tied me down with a ball and chain

I hear your words come 'round again

But I won't take this anymore

I'm not the one you're looking for

No I don't need this anymore

I don't need you
