I heard women crying everywhere

Babies born and no one cares

People sleeping on the ground

See the rain come falling down

There's decisions to be made

There has to be some give and take

For this the road we walk along

Is no the road we started on

Have you heard the full time score

We're living under Murphy's Law

I've been walking 'cross vast empty spaces I feel

I've been looking for one face I know that is real

I've been walking 'cross vast empty spaces

Let's talk about the way I feel

The whole wide world's become unreal

Time's like money it's soon spent

Let's talk about the government

They're selling England by the gram

We're stranded in the strangest land

There's not enough to go around

No one knows what's going down

Nothing ventured nothing gained
Why should we feel so ashamed
'Cause every dog must have it's day
And I refuse to be your slave
I've been walking 'cross vast empty spaces I feel
I've been looking for one face I know that is real
I've been walking 'cross vast empty spaces
Let's talk about the way I feel
The whole wide world's become unreal
Let's talk about the way I feel
The whole wide world's become unreal
London's mourning skies turned black
They've gone too far we can't turn back
Free the ravens from the tower
We've yet to have our finest hour
Don't believe the news at ten
That happy days are here again
Where's the Union Jack and Jill
'Cause we should not be standing still
Listen to me understand
A hungry man's an angry man
Let's talk about the way I feel
The whole wide world's become unreal
Let's talk about the way I feel
The whole wide world's become unreal
