Burning inside- a force of ancient times
Burning with pleasure- a strength no one can match
Into the labyrinths, into the wastelands of man
A world stronger than will and stronger than gods

Enlightening the path, the way through the mist
A devils storm, everlasting winds that guides me on Escape of the flesh, above the heavens high
The gift from the fathers, a gift from the fathers before our time

Feel that which is everywhere
A black space of infinity
Spirit guide me to a magick dawn
Transcendant in this holy trance
See all that is spiritual
Forget all things in ecstasy
Divine soul be reborn again
Let's rise and join this ride

Open up your complete being
A violet light
I emerge, I coalesce

Burning inside- a force of ancient times
Burning with pleasure- a strength no one can match

See all that is spiritual
Forget all things in ecstasy
Divine soul be reborn again
Let's rise and join this ride
