This is a fake, a world of unreal, kept trapped in a dream
Time to undo, take drugs to wake up and see who you are Life is worth nothing, enslaved under lies, born out of shame
It's all a trick a hollow dimension defined through your pain

Bondage from the start, Faithful fools
Oblivious to the perfect world,
Curse of weakness

Enslaved in torment
Laid to waste by the hands of a god
Sanctified in the flames of this hell

Beface the torment and step out of yourself, no more a slave Feel the betrayal take back what is yours, the suffering's not real Open the gates, freed from the world of sickness and fear
A black hole wide-open for entrance to truth. See for yourself!

Captive in the mind,
A cavern of despair
Oblivious of the perfect world,
Curse of weakness

Enslaved in torment
Laid to waste by the hands of a god
Sanctified in the flames of this hell
