

Godhead "Take The Hate"

Visit "Take The Hate" on MotoLyrics.com

Keep away from me now
I know how to kill myself
Live behind the iron wall
That you've built around yourself

My dismay was complete
When you wrote your master plan
Now I live filled with hate
That I hold within my hand

Thank you for doing this to me
I'd never know it for myself
Thank you for doing this to me
I'd never find out for myself

Take the hate in me now

Fill it up within your veins
Mind the stray thoughts of life
They grow dimmer every day

Thank you for doing this to me
I'd never know it for myself
Thank you for doing this to me
I'd never find out for myself

Thank you for doing this to me
I'd never know it for myself
Thank you for doing this to me
I'd never find out for myself
