"Thank You, Baby"

Till I find my place in the home of the sun
I'll just keep movin on
My spirit won't let me rest till then
It's a lonely longing
There's miles to go and as many years
And I can only rest awhile
But you gave me comfort and consolation
And a lasting smile
I got memories
Oh thank you, baby
I still love you
Oh thank you, baby
You made my life
Now the way ahead is clear
Till I find my place in the home of the sun
I'll just keep moving on
My spirit won't let me rest till then
It's a lonely longing
My spirit won't let me rest till then
It's a lonely longing
