One two, one two, one two three four
Hold it, NOW

Giddy-up

You, you've been gone for so long
I'm losing sleep (Look at what you're doing)
And I, yes I know that I was wrong
But I couldn't see? (See what I was losing)
Come back now baby
Little run-around (Little run-around)
Little lost and found (Little lost and found)
Don't make me crazy
Just bring your body back home right here where you belong
Building a bridge to your heart
Let's make a new start build a bridge to your heart

I don't know what the future's gonna be Good or bad (Good or bad (Time won't be your saviour))
And I can't give you no written guarantee
I won't make you sad (I won't make you sad (No, but I'll?))
But I'll be? (On my best behaviour) (Look what you're doing) When you put me down (When you put me down)
Made me the clown (Made me the clown)
(Look what you're doing)
Just come on over and see just how much lovin's in me
(Building a bridge to your heart)
Gonna build a bridge, gonna built a bridge

Let's make a new start build a bridge to your heart
Listen: I'll take you any way I can tonight
Come back and satisfy my appetite
You gotta know you mean that much to me
To get you back, you know, I'll do anything, horn

Come back now baby (Baby)
Just bring your body back home

Right here baby, where you belong
(Building a bridge to your heart)
Gonna build a bridge, gonna built a bridge
Let's make a new start, build a bridge to your heart
(Building a bridge to your heart) C'mon, c'mon, c'mon, c'mon
Let's make a new start build a bridge to your heart
(Building a bridge to your heart)
Gonna build a bridge, gonna built a bridge
Let's make a new start build a bridge to your heart
(Building a bridge to your heart)
