Let's take a blast up to the moon baby
I sit around wishing you well
How I'm craving you, yeah
Everytime I'm near you
I always wanna swallow you down
I'll be right here if ya need me.
In my life, I'll need you here
Don't ask why I'll never disappear
"Why is it everyday that I feel the pain?"
Let's take a trip to the stars far away
Where were you when I was down
Starring into the dead
My pain is caused by my pleasure
And my soulmate lives in your body
I can't get you out of my head
It never goes away
In my life I'll need you here
Don't ask why I'll never disappear
In your eyes you can bid me fair well
But don't ever try to understand the situation
Why is it everyday that I feel the pain?
It always comes when I least expect it
When I'm looking for love
Always seems to be regretting it
Why is it everyday that i feel the pain?
