i put you down your so proud bad magic is what surrounds dont go away far behind or you may miss something divine bad magic isn't all it seems it is a Liar merely there to decive
i reach out for you only to Lose grips with my mind i can't come to grips with what is real for i only know what is surreal in the distance i hear your fainted wimery voice from far behind cryin bad magic something divine inner spirt is crushed i hate you in a lovely way i need you but im repulsed by your scent of horrid deeds so i fall behind i crumble i am no more
i hate you
hate you all
