Shifting through the ashes in scratching through my life*
How sick is it to live with the promises
No rhyme or reason expect another fight
And my decisions are based on your ignorance And i blame you for everything you do for the scars i bear and breathing all my air
For everything i ever do i blame you i'm taking every prisoner
Through the ups and downs and my ship ain't gunna sink to the hypocrites

Reach deep inside me and tear away my soul and Nobody left to comfort me anymore and i blame you i blame you for Every thing you do for the scars i bear and breathing all My air for everything i'll ever do i blame you 'n i blame you
For everything you do for the scars i bear
And breathing all my air for everything ill ever do I blame
Ooooh i blame you Ohhhh i blame....
