I am so glad you stuck true to your obsessions and filed rest of questions under "false"
I am so glad you never took their offers
I am so glad you never returned their calls

Darling, darling, darling, darling...
My sacred darling

Darling, I believe that your obsession is your only way out of here
It's your only spiritual condition where heart and soul they cross-appeal

Darling, darling, darling, darling...
My sacred darling

So darling let's discuss our tactics:
I will be mad and you will be possessed
That is the only way to fight this world
Those are the only times when we are at our best

Darling, darling, darling, darling...
My sacred darling
