Sipping champagne like it's going out of style,
Why don't we sit and talk for a while?
It's been ages since I saw you last year,
Seems like I've been running out of time.

I was the one you kissed in the dark in the closet at the party,
Back then we didn't give a fuck,
We said, that we, would always keep in touch.
Too bad we never had such luck,

I know that I'll never be the one for you,
But you should know that I'll always try,
If only you knew what I could do for you,
I could be the starlight in your eyes.

Alright!

I know that I'll never be the one for you,
But you should know that I'll always try,
If only you knew what I could do for you,
I could be the starlight in your eyes.

I could be the starlight in your eyes.
I could be the starlight in your eyes.
