I'm out of my mind, and you're out of time,
To give me four good reasons I should go home.
JUST GO HOME!
Cos this is dumb and boring, I'm sick of "you're ignoring me,"
I'd rather be alone.

I don't know how this fell apart,
And I don't know when this will all start.
But things just turned out to be shit.
I don't know how this fell apart,
And I don't know when this will all start.
But things just turned out to be shit.
Fuck you.

I'm fuckin' tired, my mind expired,
One year, one month, one day and two hours ago.
TWO HOURS TO GO!
My mind is spoken, and I'm not jokin',
This is the first time and last time I'll say no to you.

I don't know how this fell apart,
And I don't know when this will all start.
But things just turned out to be shit.
I don't know how this fell apart,
And I don't know when this will all start.
But things just turned out to be shit.
I said fuck you.

I don't know how this fell apart,
And I don't know when this will all start.
But things just turned out to be shit.
I don't know how this fell apart,
And I don't know when this will all start.
But things just turned out to be shit.

Fuck you.
