So long I've been trying to match
It doesn't work
I'm trying
I don't know
The apparition of this world
I dragged you to it
I've killed another man
I was raging
The pain is gone
The denial
I run away from institutions
I owe myself life
There's no way
I will respond
There's passion, anger
Flowing through me
There is light in this world I fight for
The reason you won't leave this cage
Betray your child, the desire
That you won't serve to reveal yourself
Forgot to create your own life
Anger
Lies
Denial
This righteous dagger
POINTING INSIDE OF US
Won't last forever
Don't fear to let it out
Branches are coming through,
The wolf is the master
The sky is over me
I'd rather die
